Hello everyone! We hope you are all well and that you enjoyed the 75th anniversary of VE Day. The weather was perfect for all our 'social distancing' street parties! Thank you all so much for your continuing support in sending us your wonderful photos and stories. Please keep sending them in, only if you can! We love sharing all your news with your friends and our college pals. Take care and stay safe.

Kyle

Kyle has been exploring technology this week and taking selfies using his Mom's phone. Nice posing Kyle, say 'cheese'! Kyles deciding what hair style to go for next we think! We could all do with a haircut, but Kyle is holding off having his done for the time being. He is certainly rocking the Elvis look.

Timothy

Well here is Tim's tractor that he's been helping his Grandad renovate. If it was us working on it, we would have thrown the spanner in the works a long-time ago! But we know if anyone can do it, "Tim can fix it!"

Tim has also been helping his Nan to plant sunflower seeds. They are 'Teddy bear' ones, we would love to see some pictures of them in a few weeks. How tall do you think will they grow? Taller than you Tim?

Mason

Mason has been helping get ready for VE day by having his Weetabix! Not 1, not 2, not 3, but 4 yes! 4 Weetabix! That will definitely give you the energy to help Mom decorate the garden. There are Union Jacks galore! Your afternoon tea looks fit for a King! What a feast. Mason, is it the cream first or the jam on your scones? It looks like you had lots of fun celebrating. We can also see how hard you and Mom worked on the community song so well done to both of you we are very proud!

Fern

Fern has also been partying. She had a very important job of supervising her Mom design, make and decorate this lovely, huge banner! It took them a whole two days to finish it! We hope you've got a spare sheet for bedtime Fern!

We hear that you have also been enjoying watching our class stories when you have been in your stander, more recently 'windows' story. Keep looking at our website, as there are some new ones on there.

What a lovely picture of you clapping for the NHS, with your Mom, Fern! We'll all be there clapping until our hands are sore! Does anyone use spoons and saucepans to cheer them on?

Jack

What a handsome smile Jack! We are all proud of you for learning our community song for our topic. 'Chadsgrove's a Community!' We can see that you have been teaching your Dad the signs and we loved the way you used a range of instruments to put your own stamp on the song too! You have been doing some lovely bench sitting with Dad and having lots of swimming and fresh air in the garden which is great to hear! We know that you are working really hard on your standing so well done and keep up the good work. After all that exercise, you look very chilled and making the most out of Karen's amazing massages.

Megan

Megan has been taking advantage of the beautiful weather, by going for some lovely walks with her sister Susie and her dogs Tilly and Mitsy. We love the way you are helping to take care of them and keeping an eye on them, so they don't run away and chase the squirrels!

For VE day Megan has been helping her Mum make some red, white and blue bunting to decorate the garden! As far as we know the bunting remains up which is good news as we all know how Megan likes to play pranks and laugh when things go wrong! We can see you doing some good stretching in the picture Megan, well done and keep up the good work.

Jessica

Jess has been very arty and creative! She has been painting and decorating some sponge dolls, also known as 'geisha girls' We think they are beautiful Jess. As well as painting the dolls, Jess has also had some pamper sessions which have included mini facials, massages, manicures and lots more beauty treatments! Jessica we would love to come to your 'spa' You look very chilled!

Jimmy

Jimmy certainly looks as if he's ready to party! Look at the scones he has made with Mom, don't they look delicious! Do you put the jam on first or the cream? I don't think it really matters, I bet they all tasted perfect! We know how kind you are so I am sure you shared them with your sister Caitlin. We see you have also got a Union Jack flag to wave at your party. We bet after all that hard work, you're ready for a massage! Jess has got some great beauty tips to share. Jimmy has also worked hard on the community song with Caitlin and of course Pip the dog.

Holly

Looks like Holly has been having lots of fun this week shaking her pompoms! Stretch up high and reach down low. Have you been using them to join in with Joe Wicks?

As well as lots of physical activities Holly has been singing the alphabet song. Well done for remembering all of the letters Holly, we are all so proud of you.

Congratulations on the birth of your little cousin Emilia! She is beautiful and hopefully it won't be long before you can have a snuggle with her.

Also a big thank you to the college staff for learning the community song and being excellent signers. We can't wait to share the finished piece. With everyone. If you would still like to get involved please send in your videos by the end of next week. You will find an example of the song in 14US on the school website
