

Chadsgrove Curriculum Long Term Planning: Pre-Formal Curriculum

Curriculum Intent

The curriculum for pupils with Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties, which is delivered through the Long Term Plan, aims to encourage all pupils to progress through our school, following their curriculum pathway, in order to enable them to be active citizens within the school community and beyond. Our Pre-Formal Curriculum builds towards pupils being able to confidently and consistently express preferences and to be able to exert autonomy in a variety of contexts, whatever their future life beyond school may be.

The Long Term Plan is delivered through the three focus areas of the Barrs Court Curriculum:

- Early Thinking Skills
- Early Communication Skills
- Early Motor Skills

Medium Term Plans are produced termly, which detail the intended learning in each of these three focus areas. In addition, meaningful outcomes are planned for pupils in the areas of:

- Cognition and Learning
- Communication and Interaction
- Sensory and Physical development
- Social and Emotional development

These outcomes are linked closely to pupils' Education, Health and Care Plans and their Individual Education Plans.

Curriculum Implementation

Pupils with are provided with learning opportunities in each of the seven core strands of the EQUALS Pre-Formal curriculum:

- Communication and Social Relationships
- Sensory
- Physical
- Creative
- Self-Determination and Independence
- Cognition and Challenge
- Well-Being

The curriculum as a whole is designed to be inter-connected; strands are not separate from each other but learning occurs holistically, within a thematic approach to teaching.

Repetition is recognised as being an essential part of education for pupils with PMLD, so that, with familiarisation, pupils can begin to anticipate, participate, communicate preferences and make requests.

Intensive Interaction, a part of communication, is seen to be an essential part of the curriculum. Other learning opportunities can be selected according to pupils' individual needs and preferences, and planned on a rolling programme according to the following themes:

Curriculum Impact

Pupils' progress is assessed using Routes for Learning, which is an assessment tool specifically designed for pupils with PMLD. Each pupil follows a range of pathways through the 'Routemap'.

Individual targets are set for each pupil in the areas of Cognition and Learning, Communication and Interaction, Sensory and Physical development and Social and Emotional development. These targets are set in line with their EHCP Outcomes, as well as linking closely to the numbered steps on their current Band of Routes for Learning, where appropriate. Some pupils in P14 may also be working towards the OCR Accredited course 'Life and Living Skills'.

Pupils' progress towards meeting their targets is recorded using the Engagement Model, which allows small steps of progress to be recorded in the areas of exploration, realisation, anticipation, persistence and initiation. The Engagement Model is used as part of pupils' formative assessment; future lesson planning is guided by pupils' individual assessment records.

Videos and photographs are used to evidence this progress; these are saved as PowerPoint Presentations ('Learning Evidence Files').

The school's online SOLAR site is used to record pupils' progress against Routes for Learning each term, which evidences teachers' summative assessment. Data is collected which enables progress to be tracked and interventions to be put in place where necessary to ensure that all pupils reach their full potential.

As pupils progress through the school, the assessment process will allow a clearer picture of their future goals to emerge. This means that pupils can then be supported to work towards an appropriate pathway for their future beyond school, with clearly defined aims. These may include preparing pupils for the next stage in their education, such as by following an accredited course, or supporting pupils in taking their place in community life, ensuring that they have the means to communicate their needs and preferences to those around them.
