

SEND Services for your School

Complex Communication Needs Training Packages

Our fully qualified team can provide a range of training packages to support school staff develop autism-friendly learning environments. We can support school staff with strategies for communication using evidence-based practice.

Staff Training to Support Children and Young People who have:

- Communication needs
- Neurodivergence
- Behaviours that challenge

Training Packages:

- When Behaviour Challenges: A Parent's Guide
- Overcoming Tricky Transitions
- Masking: What You See isn't Always What You Get
- Funding Inclusion: Making Support Possible

Key Information:

- The training packages are a half-day, costed at £300 each
- Training is suitable for all school staff in mainstream schools
- The courses can be delivered in a twilight or evening session
- Training is face-to-face in the host school

For further information please contact the administration team using the contact details below or to make a booking please complete and submit the training form below:

Chadsgrove School - Training and CPD

For advice and support please contact SEND Services for Schools

Tel: 01527 877262 email: schoolsupportservices@chadsgrove.worcs.sch.uk